1. General provisions

Amega HERO Contest (hereafter referred to as the 'Contest') is held and operated by Amega Markets LLC (hereafter referred to as the 'Company' or 'Amega') on a periodic basis.

The date and time of the start and end of each Contest are announced on the page of the Contest on the official website.

Only the Customers who have verified their accounts are eligible to participate in the Contest. Visit our Help centre to find more information about the process.

The Contest account is a trading account which complies with the rules of the Contest and is added to the rankings. If a trading account is eliminated from the rankings, it will no longer be the Contest account.

2. Terms and conditions of the Contest

To take part in the Contest, you need to:

- log in to your Customer's Account
- open a Mini Promo MT5 trading account (hereinafter, the 'Contest account'), and
- fund the Contest account with the amount of exactly 1,000 US cents (10 USD); and
- submit a participation request form on the Contest page by specifying this Contest account number (there should be 10 USD in the account).

When submitting a request, there must be no open positions on the Contest account.

Deposits and withdrawals from the Contest account will be blocked from the moment the Contest account is registered in the Contest until the results are announced. If a situation arises where a participant wishes to withdraw funds or make a deposit into the Contest account, they should contact the Customer Support team and request that the Contest account is unblocked. After the restriction is removed, this Contest account will be excluded from the rankings and will be eliminated from the Contest.

A participant can submit an unlimited number of Contest participation requests but only one Contest account can be registered in the Contest at the same time. In the event of a new request being accepted, the previous Contest account will be automatically eliminated from the Contest. If a participant wants to change an active

Contest account for any reason, they have the right to do so at any time without stating a reason. To do this they will need to submit a new request using the participation request form in accordance with these Terms and conditions. This will mean that the previous Contest account will be automatically removed from the rankings and a new one will be added. Contest accounts can be replaced an unlimited number of times using this procedure.

The Contest is a competition among traders. The use of any automated trading strategies is prohibited.

A participant has the right to set any leverage and trade all available trading instruments on the Contest account.

In order to qualify for prizes, participants must make any number of trades with a total volume of at least 10 lots in the Contest account.

3. Winners of the Contest and the Prize fund

The promo code and further instructions on how to use it will be sent to each winner to the email registered in the Customer's Account.

5. Use of the Prize and the Extra prize funds

All the prizes mentioned above are funds belonging to the Company, and are credited to the Customers' trading accounts as bonus funds.

All the profits received during this period are available for withdrawal 30 days after a promo code has been activated.
